Two University Students Injured On Highway

Two University of Miami students were injured Sept. 21 when their car was struck from the rear at South Dixie Hwy. and Maynada.

Hospitalized for one day at Doctors' Hospital was Howard Gross, 20, 1522 Washington Ave., Miami Beach, who suffered neck and back injuries and shock.

Gross was a passenger in a car driven by Franklin E. Eaton, 18, of 9020 SW 48th St., who suffered a lacerated chin and neck and back injuries as well as shock. He was treated and released.

Both victims were given emergency treatment by Coral Gables firemen before being taken to Doctors'.

Car And Wall Are Damaged

A car and a wall were damaged but no one was hurt Sept. 27 when a car struck the wall of a building on the southwest corner of Sunset Dr. and SW 58th Ave.

According to South Miami police, the vehicle was being driven south on SW 58th Ave. by Mary K. Isbell, 725 SW 6th St., when one of the wheels hit a curb.

The driver lost control of the car, according to police officer Mike Kalman and the vehicle went over the curb and hit the building.

There were two passengers in the car, none of whom were hurt. The driver was charged with careless driving.

Eaton and Gross were stopped in southbound traffic when their car was struck by George H. Neubauer, 59, of 7840 SW 71 Ave., who told police he was unable to stop in time after he had attempted to change lanes and found out he couldn't and moved back in.

Neubauer was charged with careless driving resulting in an accident by Gables Officer James K. Able Jr.

Able estimated damage to the Eaton car at $400 and $250 to Neubauer.

Former Tyler's Employee Gets Year In Jail

A former employee of Tyler's Restaurant who stabbed a fellow employee in the back July 14 was sentenced to one year in Dade County Jail by Criminal Court Judge George Schultz last week on a reduced charge of aggravated assault.

Colin W. Jackson, 42, of 1622 NE First Ave., a dishwasher, had been charged with assault with intent to commit murder before the charge was reduced.

The victim, Kenneth Ray Burton, 23, 701 NW First St., who had to have a kidney removed following the back stabbing incident, hovered near death for several days after the incident.

The two men quarreled in the restaurant kitchen over alleged name calling and a minor debt.

Common Goal Is Palmetto PTA Theme

The Palmetto Junior-Senior High School PTA ushered in the 1960-1961 scholastic season with a meeting Thursday evening, Sept. 22 in the school auditorium.

The echo from President Mrs. Martin Shaw's gavel had scarcely died away before parents and teachers merged into eight discussion groups to talk over eight individual problems of vital concern to the teachers, parents and Palmetto students.

Mrs. Joe Johnson, program chairman, briefly outlined the Palmetto PTA theme for the 1960-1961 sessions, "The Common Goal"—and the steps to be taken to achieve it.

Principal Clyde Crabtree welcomed PTA members to the fall session and brought into sharp focus the immediate problems the school faculty faces with the beginning of a new school year, complicated by the intrusion of Hurricane Donna.

Many faculty members attended the meeting and a "get acquainted" reception was held immediately following the formal business program.

Continuing the theme "Our Common Goal", the next meeting on Nov. 17 will "Salute The Team" with a pictorial review of Palmetto's program.

Two New Men Join Gables Police Force

Two new policemen have been added to the Coral Gables police force to replace the eight men who resigned in recent weeks, Assistant Chief D. D. Edwards said last week.

The new men are Lewis James Mertz, 22, former University of Miami Hurricane newspaper managing editor, formerly employed by the Dade County Department of Public Safety, and Larry D. Corey, 25, a Des Moines, Iowa, native and Marine Corps veteran.

Mertz, who lives at 5901 SW 61st St., had been in the fingerprint section with Metro police.

He attended the University three years before cutting short his journalism career in favor of one with law enforcement.

The new recruit becomes the second UM journalism major to join the force.

Sgt. Wilfred F. Kerr, a 1949 UM journalism grad, went for

Rides Offered To Register

Robert Haverfield, Dade County Commissioner and chairman of the County Registration Committee, said this week that free "Rides to Register" for voting in the November elections are being offered to anyone, regardless of their political affiliation.

This public service is available today, Oct. 6, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.

People living in South Miami, Perrine, Homestead, Coral Gables, Coconut Grove, West Miami and out in the county will be picked up at their residences, driven to the Flagler Street Registration Office, and returned home. Appointment can be made by calling FRanklyn 7-4011 or CANal 6-1912.

Driver Fined $100 For Running Stop Sign

One of the stiffest fines for running a stop sign was handed down Sept. 26 in Metro Court—$100 and suspension of license for 90 days.

At the receiving end of the penalty was Woffard S. Donahoo, 22, of 508 Alcazar, who court officials said was a frequent violator.

Local Benefits Being Studied By Gables

The Coral Gables City Commission took another look at the proposal to turn over the city's transit system to the county last week and decided to do a little more exploration before making up its mind.

City Manager L. W. Robinson Jr. was ordered to look into the Gables system a bit closer and determine just how it benefits local residents in return for the estimated $1 per capita annual deficit.

A lot will depend on Robinson's report, which may come next week.

Sentiment among the Commission is pretty well divided and a decisive report one way or the other would probably go a long way in influencing the final decision.

At the root of the proposal to sell out to Metro are such facets as these:

- Who uses the system most—residents or non-residents?
- How would the city's special school bus program be affected?
- How would other service be affected?

The fact that the Dade County School Board refuses to provide bus transportation to Coral Gables pupils may weigh heavily with the Commission in making the final decision.

How the turnover would affect the domestic scene will also count heavily.

A great number of the city transit system's riders are domestic employees riding to and from work. These routes are very profitable and help pay for deficit producing routes.

No concrete plan has been evolved by Metro for a consolidated bus system.

No Federal Disaster Relief For Gables

The Coral Gables City Commission last week turned thumbs down on a proposal to apply to the federal government for disaster relief in the wake of damage caused by Hurricane Donna.

All four commissioners present agreed not to ask for funds to pay the $65,000 estimated damage to trees and shrubbery.

"We should take care of our own interests," said Mayor John M. Montgomery.

"We'd be paying for it anyway," commented Commissioner Joe Murphy.

City Manager L. W. Robinson Jr. had informed the Commission that Florida had been declared a disaster area by the federal government and that funds were available to communities showing a need.

In The Market For A Canal?

Interested in purchasing two portions of an undug canal cutting through Coral Gables?

The Gables City Commission last week decided to give abutting property owners first chance to purchase the property located along Orduna Dr., between Parma and Paradiso and Lots 8-9, Block 56, facing Granada Blvd.

The first undug canal property has been appraised at $12,700 and the second at $12,500.

Some of the property has been used by abutting property owners tax free, but the property would now be put on the tax rolls.

Gables Federal Names Van Slyke

The Board of Directors of Coral Gables Federal announces the election of Robert A. Van Slyke as an assistant treasurer of the association.

Van Slyke, a native of Bridgeport, Conn., has resided in Miami since 1938. He attended the University of Miami and received a BS degree and an MS degree in Economic Business from Florida State University.

Prior to joining the Coral Gables Federal staff in 1959, Van Slyke was associated with a savings and loan and banking business for six years in the accounting field.

The Election Will Be The Most Accurate Poll

By RON LEVITT

SUBURBAN VOTES: I have never had much faith in political polls. I have been told by some men whom I consider quite aware and knowledgeable that with today's methods of polls-taking, polls can usually determine the outcome to near perfection. Yet, it seems that there are certain factors in poll-taking which makes me question their reliability. One is that the "timing" is all important.

A poll taken 24 hours before an election may not necessarily show how these being polled will vote on election day. A last minute statement by a candidate or an occurrence in domestic or foreign affairs may cause the voter to switch.

Secondly, a lot of the results—even in so-called scientific polls—may be influenced by the person taking the poll.

Opinions Swayer

This "influence" may not be conscious—but somehow public opinion can be swayed by the manner in which questions are asked.

It is somewhat like the political columnists in our daily newspapers. As journalists they are charged by their profession to be impartial and I am sure they try to be impartial. However, one does not need to scrutinize the writings of the political editors of, for example, the Miami daily newspapers, too hard to realize toward which political party they lean.

What this leads up to is a question which was put to me about a week ago. I was asked: "In your opinion, how do you feel the suburbanites of the Southwest section of Dade County will vote in the Presidential election?"

No Answer

I could not give an answer. Nor do I have the knowledge or time to conduct a poll. And I said, "Even if I could conduct such a poll, I wouldn't take the results too seriously. First, because of the time element—with still a month away from election day when a lot of events could determine the outcome. And secondly, because—even though I might try to be impartial—I definitely am committed to one of the political parties' nominees, and my choice might inadvertently show through in the way I ask the questions or write up the results.

Nevertheless, to satisfy a curiosity—I did ask a dozen or so suburban dwellers in Our Town

Cafeteria Seeks

OK For Smorgasbord

Proposed plans to convert Moore's Red-Sunset Cafeteria into a smorgasbord were given a tentative okay from the Coral Gables Zoning Board recently.

The proposal would have to come before the City Commission if any exceptions or variances are necessary to accomplish the conversion.

just how they felt about the forthcoming election. These were some of the results.

BOB X: a University of Miami senior, age 23, single: "I'm going to vote for the first time—and I'm going to vote for Kennedy. The Republicans are bad for the domestic growth and have failed miserably in foreign affairs."

TOM Y: Miami businessman, married, age 45. "Nixon's my choice. We need an experienced man in the Presidency. Nixon would continue the Eisenhower policy."

JOE Z: Salesman; married, age 30: "Let's face it. Foreign policy under the Democrats or Republicans won't be much different. But the Democratic party has always done more for the working man, I'm for Kennedy all the way."

BILL X: Salesman, married, age 35: "I'm a registered Democrat. But I can't vote for anyone supporting that Democratic platform. So I'm voting for Nixon. (This Democrat voted for Eisenhower last time).

There was also a comment from a housewife who said she is voting for Kennedy "because he's better looking" and another housewife who said she's voting for Nixon "because Pat would be more homey around the White House than Jackie Kennedy."

Religious Issue

There were also other comments such as "I'm voting against Kennedy because he is Catholic" and "I'm voting against Nixon because he has dragged religious bigotry into the election."

So, as you can see, there seems to be a wide divergence of opinion among suburbia—the great bulk of today's American voters. Any poll might be able to account for the above voters in some sort of figure chart or analysis.

But—in the end result—how can you ever account for the man who had this comment: "I don't know who I'm going to vote for yet. It depends on what these candidates say and do.

These TV debates may give me the decision."

And what pollster can accurately determine on a chart how a man like this will vote?

Only election day itself can determine the final answer.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR:

The announcement that the St. Louis Cardinals have taken over the affiliation with the Miami Marlins will mean a lot of changes. New Players. Probably a better team next season. And you'll find affiliates of the Cardinals very promotion-minded which may mean an all-out drive to get local residents to support the Marlins.

Owen Phillips will open his Coconut Grove Theater Nov. 15 but won't announce the plays or the stars until later in the month when contracts are signed. . . . Our Town will have an excellent new hospital facility starting Nov. 21. Builder Bob Turchin said the new Baptist Hospital on North Kendall Dr.

will be ready to receive patients then. . . . Light Opera of Miami presents "Of Thee I Sing" tomorrow and Saturday night at Dade County Auditorium. . . . Because of the flooding during recent rains in Our Town, a closer look may be taken of building plans in those areas in the future. . . . Sheriff Tom Kelley may make a bid to get more policemen for the area. Everyone admits Our Town needs more policemen, but no one wants to pay for them. . . . The traffic of visitors flowing southward from Miami into the Florida Keys will be as great or greater than ever. Despite the havoc of Hurricane Donna down there, rebuilding has been going on at a quick pace. Some reports from the Keys say that they are already getting tourists—many of them, curiosity-seekers wanting to get a personal view of what is happening down there.

Station Manager Wins Prize For Beautification

Pete White, manager of the Douglas Road Gulf Service station at 2501 SW 37th Ave., has won the amateur and business categories of the City of Miami Beautification Contest.

The prize for the beautification improvements White and his assistants made to the service station is a trip to Nassau for himself and his wife. He also received a plaque from the beautification committee.

White entered the contest in July when he took over management of the station. He filed his formal application after he had applied for a permit to make improvements to the building and grounds.

The improvements were a general cleaning and painting of the property and the planting of shrubs. A picture was taken before improvements were started to determine the degree of beautification.

The judges were Miami Mayor Robert King High, the mayors' committee, and prominent citizens of Miami. A county-wide beautification contest is now in the formal planning stage.

The Crandon Park Zoo with more than 700 species of mammals, birds and reptiles, is free to the public year-round.

There is also a four-acre children's Zoo inside the zoological gardens, consisting of stone animals, talking storybooks and live animals from Bombay to Farmer Brown's Barnyard.

Bad News For Thieves—Parking Lot Lights

Bad news for thieves and vandals—Coral Gables' downtown parking lots are scheduled to be lighted in the near future.

City Manager L. W. Robinson Jr. was authorized by the City Commission recently to go out for bids following the recommendation of Maurice H. Connell Associates.

The Commission at the same time authorized the purchase of change making machines, which will be installed in major lots.

Constitution Is Drafted For Students

By LESLIE GROSS
New Constitution

The Gables High Student Government, led by President Leif Erickson and Vice President Len Holloway, drafted a new constitution over the summer.

After four months of continued revision, the constitution was presented to the student body last week for ratification. Though actual changes are few, several are outstanding. Provisions have been made for Junior and Senior boards, for recalling and impeaching student government officers and for minimum grade eligibility standards. A candidate for a position in student government must maintain a 2.2 scholastic average and a 3.0 conduct record.

GROSS

Curriculum Additions

Beginning this year, Gables High will offer third year courses in French and German. Mr. Joseph Tucker will be teaching third year French, and Mrs. Kathie Wilson will instruct the third year German class. For the first time a sophomore German class has been instituted, bringing the total number of students taking German to 108.

The math department and Gables students extend a welcome to Mrs. Joanne Taber, formerly of Paxton High in Jacksonville. Mrs. Taber is now teaching math analysis at Gables.

Regulations Tightened

This year the Gables High Library is requiring students to produce a sample signature for the library card before a card is issued to them. These signatures may be compared to checkout signatures and may help cut down the loss of library books, many of which have been checked out in others' names. Student ID cards are now required at the library check out station. Students may be asked to produce ID cards in the halls or cafeteria at any time, in addition to the usual places: movies, football games, etc. Student parking stickers are required for all vehicles in the Gables student parking lot. Two dollar fines will be given the driver of any car found in the lot without a sticker. These fines will be handled by the Gables Police Department, independent of the school.

Death In The Shadows

A headline in the June 11, 1959, edition of The Times read, "Is Old Cutler Road A Leafy Death Trap?" The story reported that the beautiful, verdant, winding road had taken three lives up to that date.

This lovely but deadly stretch of asphalt has continued to take its toll recently in a Times headline reading "Old Cutler Road Claims Fifth Victim."

Why is death always standing in the shadows along Old Cutler? One can only guess at the reasons, but no doubt its quiet secluded atmosphere lulls the average driver into a sense of unreality during the quiet night hours. Undoubtedly, too, the curving roadway, obstructed by overhanging branches and vegetation, offers a deceptive vista to motorists.

And the 40 mile an hour speed limit may be a contributing factor to the mounting deaths.

But the big factor in the gruesome death toll is the human element. Alcohol and speed have figured prominently in reports of death along Old Cutler. The story is pretty much the same — more drinks than a cautious person would think of taking before driving down Old Cutler at a late hour when the road is deserted and inviting speeding and death at a curve when a car crashes with a roar into a tree.

The five deaths covered here have all been shocking ones. Several of the victims have been trapped in the wreckage and were only pulled out after some horrible scenes.

About all that police officers can do is to step up enforcement of the speed limit by increasing the patrols. They can also reassess the 40-mile speed limit permitted along the stretch. The rest is up to the motorists.

As long as drivers on Old Cutler Road, or anywhere else, believe that they can ignore the oft-repeated warnings about mixing speed and alcohol and violating other traffic rules, they will pay the penalty in death. The "it can't happen to me" attitude has sent many a motorist to his grave. When a driver combines that attitude with the lures to disaster that lurk on Old Cutler Road, death as often as not will leap out of the shadows to claim him.

Time Out For A Look

Dade County, which has been congratulating itself, and rightfully so, on its hurricane building code, might take time out for a look at its zoning regulations.

The flood conditions in South Dade hint at the conclusion that the county is permitting building in areas that are not suitable for residences.

Although it is true that record rains have fallen in the county in the past few weeks, it is also true that zoning should protect homeowners and property buyers in extreme situations. Bad as things are in South Dade, they could be a lot worse. Another hurricane on top of recent flooding could have created havoc all over the county. And it could happen.

There are a number of persons in Dade County who have expressed concern from time to time over the development of low terrain for housing. Rising land values, they claim, have encouraged zoning authorities to be too lenient when allowing such construction. Adding to this laxity is the fact that no serious hurricane has hit Miami in a decade.

Although the popular cry is for Greater Miami to grow, grow, grow, it would be better, we believe, for it to grow with proper respect for the natural problems of water, terrain and weather conditions which are unique in this area.

Better to build carefully now with proper regard for these conditions than to console ourselves with firm resolves and sad regrets from a position of hindsight if the area should ever be devastated by a period of heavy rainfall followed up by a disastrous gallop.

Cyclist Injured In Accident On Highway

A 17-year-old youth was treated for shock, laceration of the left hand and left knee injury at Doctors' Hospital the evening of Sept. 21 when he motorcycle was struck and destroyed by a car allegedly making a "U" turn.

Glenn Aquirre, of 7710 SW 67th Ave., received emergency aid at South Dixie Hwy. and Oak St. from Coral Gables firemen before being taken to Doctors' for additional treatment.

According to Gables Officer Gene Bell, the victim was northbound on Dixie when a southbound car driven by Toby Welch, 64, of 3566 Thomas, made a "U" turn and struck the cycle.

The woman was charged with failing to yield the right of way. Her car sustained an estimated $100 damage.

To Be Bar Mitzvah

Gregory Allen, son of the Albert B. Levines, 6509 Riviera Dr., will be Bar Mitzvah Oct. 8. The ceremony and reception will be held at the Beth Am Synagogue in Kendall. Johnny Masters and his orchestra will handle all the music.

Gables Will Audit Books At Hospital

By MAURICE LABEL

An audit is being taken of Doctors' Hospital's books by the City of Coral Gables to determine this institution's tax exemption status.

The audit was ordered after City Tax Assessor T. C. Blount reportedly balked at giving a ruling on the tax free status.

Blount said last week that he had no comments to make on the matter which was precipitated by inquiries of attorney Bernard B. Weksler.

Not Eligible

Weksler claims that Doctors' is not eligible under state law to the tax free status granted by the City Commission which also acts as the city's Board of Equalization.

Tuesday, a delegation, led by Mrs. Mary Reeder, director of the hospital, appeared before the City Commission but left without presenting the hospital's case when Mayor John M. Montgomery informed them that further action awaited completion of the audit and a report from the tax assessor.

Complicating the controversy over the tax exemption status is Blount's own status in city hall.

Opinion differs whether Blount has the authority and jurisdiction to make a ruling since he was reduced by a previous City Commission to the status of a clerk after it had failed to have him fired for alleged insubordination when he refused to reduce taxes for a group of local residents.

City Attorney, Ted Sample, who was instrumental in overruling Blount in previous decisions, said this week that Blount is still the Tax Assessor by the City Charter and state law although he may have been reduced to clerk status.

Paul Gleman, the city's auditor, has been going over the hospital's books in an effort to determine if the former private institution, now operated as a non-profit institution, meets the requirements of state law.

Weksler, who has been conducting a running series of investigations of city business, has challenged the tax free status of the hospital on the allegation that it is not performing enough charitable work to meet state law requirements.

Dear Bill:

Speaking for myself and several other merchants in our group I'd like to let you know how much we enjoyed your 'Support Your University' issue.

It is, we believe, entirely appropriate that our local spotlight be directed toward our fine University, her faculty and her students. Their contributions to our community, both cultural and financial, are extremely important.

I'm sure the wealth of material you presented in this section was of great interest to your host of readers in this area...I know it was to me.

Again, my thanks to both you and Bob Slane for a fine community effort! I hope your next effort is even more successful...perhaps something could be tied in with Homecoming!

Dear Mr. Slane;

We are all prone to criticize but seldom does anyone take a minute to say a word of praise...this is my minute to praise!

Your paper of Sept. 29th., with the University of Miami section therein, was quite a professional job and one that you, and your associates can justly be proud of; it will be a tough target for you to aim at in the future. I noted many new advertisers on the pages and I feel that speaks well for our Gables merchants as they recognize real effort that will give them wide coverage and touch many new readers.

We had very favorable comments from many students yesterday and today so evidently they not only took the paper because it was free but, which is more important, they read it. It was very interesting and informative, even for an old one like me.

I look forward to another big push like this because that extra circulation automatically brings down the cost of the lineage and we merchants, like our nice customers, are looking for bargains too. Good luck to you and with this request for another fine, and timely, University section, I am Attending his 50th year high school class reunion at Townsville, Pa., was just one of the highlights for Dr. William O. Boss, DDS, of 3810 Durango St. and his wife, Betty, who spent June in their native Pennsylvania. The other was being honor guest at the Shrine banquet of Zeta Zeta Temple in Meadville, Pa., of which Dr. Boss's nephew, Clarence "Bud" Tookey, is potentate. Dr. Boss, who retired two years ago after 40 years as a commissioned officer in the United States Coast Guard, says there were about eight "old" gals and their wives at the reunion and 166 attending the banquet. When Bud introduced his uncle, he said, "My uncle and auntie travelled 1500 miles to attend this party." DR. BOSS "Auntie" Betty hails from Titusville, Pa. Dr. Boss is a member of Alma Temple in his hometown and the Shriners count more than a million members in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

RIDES IN HELICOPTER AT 84

Grandma Moses has nothing on Mrs. Louise L. Gross, of 11 Aquilla Ave., but age. This summer while at her summer home in Wildwood, Pa., Mrs. Gross observed her 84th birthday Sept. 5 by taking a ride in a helicopter operated by her granddaughter, Jean Wilson. Jean, who teaches physical culture in the Philadelphia school system, also holds a few firsts herself, so rare they made the Philadelphia newspapers. She is the only woman in Pennsylvania holding three licenses to operate three types of planes, aqua-plane, airplane and helicopter. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Franzen, who resides with Mrs. Gross (Mrs. Franzen is her daughter), drove. They usually leave in June and are back by September. Mr. and Mrs. Franzen were home in time to celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary Saturday. They were married in the chapel at Valley Forge.

Kappa Kappa Gamma, founded in 1870 in Ohio, is making news politically on the distaff side. Pat Nixon, wife of the vice president of the United States and presidential hopeful, is a Kappa and may accompany her husband on his campaign into Miami, local alumnae say. And, locally, Alice (Mrs. Grant) Stockdale, 611 N. Greenway Dr., is now in New York C with Grant working with the Kennedy forces. Mr. Stockdale having been named national Southern leader for the Kennedy camp. Alice is a Kappa member of the University of Miami's Delta Kappa Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Huntley, vacationing at the Skyland Hotel, Hendersonville, N. C., write that they are enjoying the beautiful mountain scenery and attending the auction sales, along with the cool weather always on tap nights and early mornings in North Carolina. Of course, they are seeing many Gableites and ran into the Roscoe Brunstetters, in Asheville. Mrs. Frank Kerdyk Sr. says the Adirondack Mountains are now dressed in their autumn finery as she takes her annual trip to Ploversville, Pa., for a visit with friends. But she is anxious to get home to see what damage Donna did.

There is a lively crowd of tenants who live and love the Live Oak Apartments (14 units) at 2666 Tigertail Ave. in the Grove. At least they love their landlord, Burt and Gladys Ferson, who reside at 2649 So. Bayshore Dr., for on the day after "Donna's" departure, Burt and Gladys came up bearing gallons of steaming hot coffee for everyone. But then, they are always doing little things to make their tenants more comfortable. In return the tenants went into a huddle and came up with a surprise party idea. The unsuspecting Petersons brought "Irish stew" in response to an invitation to an "International Dinner" on Tuesday with all tenants bringing their favorite dish to the apartment of Betty Baker. When the guests arrived everyone called "surprise!" and toasted their honored guests in champagne, presenting 1 Peterson with a black orchid (her favorite).

Medical Offices Are Approved

Permission to convert a downtown apartment building to commercial use for medical offices has been granted by the Coral Gables City Commission to Dr. Harry D. L. Kaye.

The action came last week when the Commission backed the recommendation of the Coral Gables Zoning Board which had previously approved the move.

Dr. Kaye made the proposal to the city and contemplates purchase of the property at 110 Merrick Way from Mrs. Betty Harris.

No outside alterations are planned, but the interior will be changed to accommodate the medical offices.

Gables Won't Trade Licenses With Others

There will be no reciprocity with other communities on occupation licenses, Coral Gables commissioners decided last week. They split evenly on the issue.

The draw, resulting in maintenance of the status quo, came as a result of the absence of Commissioner Robert Searle, out of town due to his father's death.

The decision was a reaffirmation of one made several weeks ago when members of the Coral Gables Board of Realtors appeared before the Commission to appeal for reciprocity.

Peter B. Clark, Miami real estate broker, sparked the latest appeal.

Clark has had no occupational license case pending before the Municipal Court for several months.

The Miami broker appeared before the Commission two weeks ago to make a direct appeal for reciprocity. The case had been under consideration.

South Miami

Roundup

By EDWIN KNIGHT

KNIGHT

WEE SOUTH MIAMI, Coral Gables' little brother and Miami's country cousin, never had a title like its near and distant relatives.

It never was called "The City Beautiful," Coral Gables' nickname. Nor has it ever been called "The Magic City," Miami's title. There never was anything magic about South Miami.

But if the plans of two South Miami developers work out, South Miami in the not too distant future may be called "The Skyscraper City," the home of beautiful office buildings.

LAST WEEK TWO SEPARATE developers revealed that plans are beginning to jell for the construction of two office buildings within half a block of each other near Sunset Dr. and SW 62nd Ave. Not one but two.

Apparently neither developer knew of the others' plans.

Picture the intersection of Sunset Dr. and 62nd Ave. On the southeastern corner is planned a 12-story ultra-modern office building. It's a vacant lot now. And on the immediate east of this building is South Miami Library.

ACROSS 62ND AVE. FROM this lot is a service station. And on the immediate east of this service station is planned an eight-story office building. It may even go to 10 stories.

Both buildings will cost between $1 million and $1½ million.

From here on out, with but one exception, the buildings change. That exception is that both developers chose this location as the best one for miles around. Why?

WELL, LET'S GO to the developers first. The planner of the 12-story building, the one on the southeastern corner, is a long-time builder with an apparent eye to the future.

His name is Matson O'Neal Jr., who has been constructing this and that in Miami since 1937.

O'Neal says he has the land (he owns the property), the financing arranged and the building contract already let. He seems confident the building will be constructed. What more is needed?

THE BUILDING ACROSS the street, already named the Sunset Cooperative Office Building, is a unique one in that it will be probably the first cooperative office building in Greater Miami.

This is the main reason the developer, K & K Development Corp., is confident the building will be erected.

They look at the building this way. It will provide the answer to individual office ownership with a small capital investment.

NOW COMES THE BIG question — Why was this particular location chosen by two developers at almost the same time for practically the same type of building?

The answer is interesting. It may save South Miami from future economic troubles.

K & K Development, the planner of the eight-story structure beside the service station, said it has had its eye on that location for a long time. It said that large amounts of office space in South Miami are at a premium. South Miami is a crossroads. Or it will be in the years to come. Many professional people are moving to the suburbs from downtown Miami.

O'NEAL THE DEVELOPER of the 12-story structure beside the library, went about choosing the location in a more scientific way. But his conclusions are similar to those of K & K Development Corp.

Before O'Neal did any serious thinking about the Sunset Dr.-62nd Ave. location he went to the University of Miami and had an economic feasibility report made on the location.

When he received the answer from UM, he made his move.

THESE ARE THE REASONS. The report took into consideration the present population and the expected future population growths of the area for miles surrounding the prospective site.

Also taken into consideration were the arteries leading into the building site, the area buildings that could help support the skyscraper and the expected future buildings that could economically help the huge structure.

AFTER ALL, YOU DON'T go out and build a 12-story building on a hunch.

The survey showed that population-wise, the full potential has not been reached. North, east, south and west, there are still more people and homes to come. It's OK in this department.

Arteries leading into the location were considered excellent. There is South Dixie Highway, 62nd Ave., Sunset Dr. and, farther away, Palmetto Expressway, Bird, Red, Ludlam and Davis Roads. OK here, too.

WHAT BUILDINGS AND professional people would support the 12-story building?

Mostly doctors, attorneys, architects and realtors, O'Neal found in the report. Many are moving from downtown Miami.

Doctors will have access to three nearby hospitals, South Miami, Baptist, and Doctors', not to mention medical centers such as Mercy a little more distant.

Yes, with this type of approach, how can South Miami miss being called "The Skyscraper City," the city of beautiful office buildings?

Dunmire Recommends Periodic Auto Check-Up

This is truly an automobile age. The family car serves the worker, the student, the shopper and even the vacationer.

We depend upon our cars to start on cold mornings, to stop instantly on rainy days, and to ride smoothly over bumpy roads.

"Like any good piece of machinery, your car deserves regular care to keep it in top running order," said Gil Dunmire, owner of Dunmire's Garage, 241 Almeria Avenue.

A periodic checkup at Dunmire's clean, modern garage is the pleasant and sure way to increase your car's peak performance.

Dunmire suggests, "A thorough analysis by the Electronic Dumont Analyzer will pinpoint any trouble in the ignition system in a matter of minutes. Weak plugs, loose wiring, improper point settings, may seem like little difficulties, but they can add up to real trouble."

The amazing Dumont analysis costs only $2.00. Tune up charges vary with cars and the amount of work done. After the tune up, the Analyzer is attached to the engine to assure the accuracy of the adjustments.

Another periodic problem may be wheels that are out of line.

GIL DUNMIRE of Dunmire's Garage, "Preventive Maintenance" is keynote here, to keep your car running at peak efficiency.

Again, Dunmire's modern equipment, this time the John Bean Visualizer, assures accurate diagnosis and correction of the condition.

All the latest equipment is of no use if the mechanic does not know his business. Gil Dunmire carefully made sure that he knew what he was doing before he opened his establishment.

Training as a mechanic in Detroit, he added to his knowledge by becoming a graduate trainee of the Carter Carburetor School, the Sun Electric Training School and the Modern Engine Tune-up course of the Lindsey Hopkins School, here.

Dunmire's Garage is opened all day Monday through Friday, and Saturday till noon.

West Miami Post Office Contract Let

Postmaster Eugene Dunlap said today that a contract has been signed for construction and lease to the Post Office Department of a new post office building for the Tamiami Station in West Miami.

The successful bidder is Seymour Rubin of Miami.

Ground breaking and construction of the new building is expected to begin immediately.

Completion date is set for March 1, 1961.

The modern post office will be located on the northwest corner of Southwest 8th Street and Southwest 68th Ave.

It will provide 8398 square feet of interior space, an outside loading platform and ample parking facilities.

Modern patron service counters will replace the old grill-type windows.

Postmaster Dunlap pointed out that the new building will remain under private ownership while leased to the Federal Government, and hence will pay local real-estate taxes to bear its share of the cost of local government.

Machines carpet Hawaiian pineapple fields with tar paper to raise soil temperature, save moisture, and check weeds, the National Geographic Magazine says. On each acre some 17,000 shoots are hand planted through holes in the paper. The plants bear fruit in about 20 months.

Did Fake Detectives Try Local Robbery

Did a Coral Gables woman narrowly miss being robbed by two men posing as police detectives?

Mrs. A. V. DeMarco, 231 Santilane, Apt. 4, reported this to Coral Gables police last week after reading that a Miami Beach couple had been robbed by two men who identified themselves as sleuths.

The men, one identified as heavy and dark and between 30-35 and the other, muscular, sandy-haired, 25-30, came to her apartment Sept. 15, and asked to see Mr. DeMarco after flashing a badge and identifying themselves as detectives.

She told them that he wasn't home and asked them what they wanted, but the duo refused to say and left.

Mrs. DeMarco said she thought nothing of the incident until she read of the Miami Beach robbery where two men used this ruse to get into their home and rob them.
